Dear Sholtis Family,

On behalf of the University of Connecticut School of Business and its Family Business Program, we wish to congratulate you, your family, your management team and all of your employees for your success in the Sixth Annual Connecticut Family Business of the Year competition.

These awards are presented to Connecticut family firms who demonstrate excellence in family business values, leadership, innovation, philanthropy and success. This achievement reflects your strong commitment to work, family and community.

Once again, congratulations. We are proud to be associated with you and feel privileged to count you among our neighbors.

Sincerely,

Thomas G. Gutteridge
Dean and Distinguished
Professor of Management

Richard N. Dino
Associate Dean
